TRIBUNAL TO HEAR CHARGES AGAINST ATTORNEY GENERAL

AFTER HE HAS HAD A HEARING, PRESIDENT COOLIDGE WILL TAKE ACTION

Congress Today By United Press

Senate: Wheeler resolution on investigating Daugherty. Norbeck-Burness farm relief bill.

House: Tax bill debate continues.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Administration leaders will put Attorney General Daugherty on trial before some congressional tribunal without delay.

After he has had a hearing, President Coolidge will ask him to resign on the advice of his closest political lieutenants.

From official sources it was learned today that this is the president's present intention regarding the attorney general, who left Washington with dramatic suddenness yesterday, leaving behind him a defy to his enemies, in which he said:

"It is not my intention to even consider tendering my resignation as attorney general until after a bare hearing on charges preferred against me."

Whether Daugherty will be investigated by a senate committee under the Wheeler resolution, or called to the bar of the senate in impeachment proceedings, is to be decided today.

DAUGHERTY IN CHICAGO TODAY

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty arrived here from Washington at 9 a. m. today, and immediately drove to the Union League club.

Smiling pleasantly, Daugherty shook his head at the group of newspaper men at the station, and declared he had nothing to say.

Daugherty said a statement might be issued from the federal district attorney's office, where he will confer with several of his aides within the next hour.

"I will issue a statement indicating my position in this connection, as soon as I have read some telegrams I am expecting from Washington," Daugherty said, referring to reports that he was about to resign from President Coolidge's cabinet.

After a hasty conference at the district attorney's office, Daugherty will take a train for Miami, Florida, where his wife is ill.

MISSING LINKS IN OIL QUERY

Washington, Feb. 28.—Missing links in the chain of evidence, showing how efforts were made to stave off uncovering of the whole naval oil scandal, will be shown by senate investigators.

These links consist of telegrams which have not thus far appeared among the messages submitted by telegraph companies, in response to the committee's demand for all communications to E. B. McLean, Washington publisher, while he was in Palm Beach recently, to Albert B. Fall, central figure in the scandal, and from E. B. McLean, Fall and others.

Officials of the telegraph companies will be asked to search their files for messages by Senator Walsh, chief investigator of the scandal, believed to have been sent, but which have not been laid before the committee.

DECLARES RAILROAD LABOR BOARD OF PRESENT A FAILURE

(By United Press)
Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 28.—Declaring that the railroad labor board created under the Esch-Cummins bill is a failure, D. B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, today announced introduction in congress of a new bill to be known as the "railroad labor act."

PREMIER KING'S O. K. ON SEAWAY SIGHTED

MOVE FORESEEN TO REGAIN LOST FORTUNES OF HIS PARTY IN WESTERN PROVINCE

Montreal, Feb. 28.—That the Premier MacKenzie government will make an important pronouncement in favor of the deepening of the St. Lawrence waterway, and also in favor of the development of power on the St. Lawrence, was predicted on excellent authority.

It is believed that the prime minister, casting aside the timidity which has hitherto marked his dealing with large public issues, will thereby make a bold attempt to rehabilitate the fallen fortunes of his party in the western provinces and the Province of Ontario. He thus will endeavor to emulate the policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1904, when he announced the building of the Grand Trunk railway and tied his party to victory.

The recent aggressive attitude adopted by Sir Adam Beck, on the Ontario hydro-electric commission for the development of the power on the St. Lawrence, has been, it is intimated, largely responsible for this important decision on the part of the King government, which is likely to have its consummation soon. Of even more importance is the fact that approval of the Beck plan probably will force the development of the navigation feature of the river. Despite what the Ontario hydro-electric heads may say, the two features of the development go together and can hardly be separated.

TEA DRINKERS MEETING IN N. Y.

(By United Press)
New York, Feb. 28.—A conference that will decide what kinds of tea American tea drinkers will be permitted to have during the coming year convened at the customs house here today.

The meeting is of the board of tea experts appointed by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, in conformity with the tea inspection act, to select official standards for tea imported into this country during the next season.

Standards of purity, quality and fitness for consumption for all teas entering the United States will be measured, selected and recommended to Secretary Wallace for approval. The approved standards will go into effect May 1.

The tea inspection act requires fixing of such standards to prevent importation of impure teas, dangerous to health. New standards are chosen each year to vary with the crops and changing conditions.

A Post-War Chapter

Kingston, N. C., Feb. 28.—Mingo Cobb is dead. The average reader won't get much knock out of that announcement, but he was well known in this section. He was an old-time darkey, who during reconstruction days was the coroner of Lenoir county. He said before his death that he was 115 years old.

Cobb was sexton for a Baptist church many years. Once when water stood deep at the basement entrance, a passerby called it to his attention. "That's all right," he said. "This church was built that way—it's a Baptist church."

PROGRESSIVES IN SUDDEN SHIFT ON HOUSE TAX BILL

AGREE TO JOIN ADMINISTRATION LEADERS TO MAKE BILL "REPUBLICAN" MEASURE

AGREE TO SUPPORT THE LONGWORTH COMPROMISE ON MAXIMUM SURTAX RATES

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 28.—Progressive forces in the house today shifted suddenly and agreed to join administration leaders in a compromise to make the tax bill a "republican" measure, if their demands for normal income tax rates are met.

At a conference of the progressive bloc it was agreed to support the Longworth compromise of 37½ per cent as the maximum surtax rates if the leaders would yield to a 5 per cent normal rate on incomes between $4,000 and $8,000 instead of 6 per cent as Longworth proposed.

Republican Leader Longworth will meet the progressive leaders later today, if the compromises are effected. The Garner democratic rates will be knocked out of the bill on the final vote tomorrow.

The Longworth compromise provides for a flat 25 per cent cut in income rates. The maximum rate of 37½ per cent is on incomes of $200,000 or more. The Garner maximum is 44 per cent on incomes over $94,000.

Explaining the sudden switch of the progressives, Representative Nelson, Wisconsin, said it was done in the interest of "party solidarity" and a desire to raise sufficient revenue for the soldier bonus. The compromise rates, he believed, will raise more revenue than the Garner plan.

Dog on Ice Cake in Chicago River Ties Up Traffic Till Rescued

Chicago, Feb. 28.—One small dog afloat on an ice cake in the Chicago river disorganized land and water traffic for some time yesterday. The fleet of barges in tow of a tugboat was stopped, and a crowd thronged the Adams street bridge and openly displayed anxiety over the fate of the little canine. The tugboat veered over to rescue the dog, but it struck the ice cake and the dog got an ice cold bath and then swam to the steep bank which hems the river. A policeman finally lassoed the dog, bringing it safely to shore.

MOB ATTEMPTS TO SEIZE JAILED NEGRO

NATIONAL GUARD TROOPS DISPERSE MOB IN LUFKIN, TEXAS

(By United Press)
Lufkin, Texas, Feb. 28.—A mob stormed the jail here in an attempt to remove a negro prisoner, but was dispersed by national guard troops today.

The soldiers, arriving from Nacogdoches, forced the rioters to flee after three of their number had been wounded.

The prisoner was arrested in connection with the murder of Andy Sulzer in a holdup Tuesday night. Police Chief Ed Rice said no further trouble is anticipated.

Booker McMillan was arrested last night after a 24 hour chase by a sheriff's posse.

Soon after he was placed in jail a crowd gathered and attempted to force an entrance.

Sheriff's forces and local police beat them back. Three members of the crowd were injured. William Wells and John Hudgins suffered from face and scalp injuries, and Budd Davis was shot in the shoulder.

TO PROBE CROSBY MINE DISASTER

COMMITTEE OF FIVE TO BE NAMED BY GOVERNOR PREUS

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 28.—The cause of the Milford mine disaster, February 5th, in which 41 died, is to be determined by a committee of five to be named by Governor Preus.

The governor this morning announced he would appoint the committee, as a result of a request for such action from both the Duluth Federated Trades Assembly and the State Federation of Labor, at Minneapolis. The names will probably be announced late this afternoon, after a conference with E. G. Hall, president of the state labor body, the governor said.

Governor Preus expressed himself as fully in accord with the move to definitely determine the cause of the accident.

EMBEZZLER OF $127,000 IS ORDERED RELEASED

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 28.—Berger T. Jager, former Duluth street railway company official who embezzled $127,000, was released from Stillwater prison today.

The state parole board declined to give him freedom, following a hearing at the prison yesterday afternoon. Jager was secretary to A. M. Robertson, president of the Duluth company, and on January 25, 1921, disappeared with $127,000 worth of securities.

He traveled about the country and was reported in several places but was not placed under arrest until the following July when he went to a Presbyterian minister in Cincinnati, where he confessed his embezzlement and gave himself up on the advice of the churchman.

He returned to Minneapolis and was lodged in jail. After surrendering $11,000, which he had with him, he revealed the hiding place where he had the remainder of the bonds he took.

Berlin Decree Forbids Peek-a-Boo Waits in Interest of Economy

Berlin, Feb. 28.—Peek-a-boo waits have been forbidden by the minister of finance of the Berlin district in the interest of economy. The decree has caused a sensation among the several thousand municipal employees.

Women, when at work in the bureaus, said the edict must have the chest and lower part of the neck covered. Too much time has been lost heretofore by women workers, the finance minister contends, in attending to fluffy waists and collars, and in consulting mirrors "to see if the thing is on straight."

Plain shirt waists wear longer and cost less to wash, it is held, and besides attract less attention among the men who are also to lose less time and do more work.

FARM HOME FOUND TO BE CACHE FOR STORE THEFT LOOT

AUTHORITIES INVESTIGATING A MOONSHINE TIP RUN ACROSS THE CACHE

IDENTIFIED FROM TAGS, ETC., AS BEING STOCK FROM FOLEY STORE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 28.—Two men are under arrest following discovery of the home of the $10,000 loot of the Foley general store robbery. They are H. E. Regal, 32, a farmer on the White Bear road just outside of the city limits, and Charles Kane, an employee of the firm.

The loot recovered includes 250 suits, 8 overcoats, 10 dozen pair of hose, 7 dozen ties and 10 dozen shirts, the total value of which police say will reach about $10,000.

The arrest was made when Detectives Joseph Pugliese and Henry Cummings, Deputy Sheriff Arthur Erickson and Albert Hicks, federal prohibition agent, went to the farm and searched it on a tip that a big moonshine plant was running there.

In their search they uncovered the huge supply of clothing and the loot and immediately took the two men under arrest. They were taken to central police station here. The loot was identified from tags and descriptions as the loot taken from the Foley, Minnesota, store of E. Chmielewski.

GOLD CALF TEMPLE IS BELIEVED FOUND

IDENTICAL WITH NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S CITADEL, DIRECTOR OF MUSEUM HOLDS

Philadelphia, Feb. 28.—The Temple of the Golden Calf, mentioned in the Old Testament, has been found by the joint expedition of the University of Pennsylvania Museum and the British Museum near Ur of the Chaldees, Dr. George B. Gordon, director of the university museum, believes. He expressed the belief today that Nebuchadnezzar's temple, which the expedition has unearthed, is identical with the golden calf temple.

The Bible story of this temple, in the book of Daniel, relates how three Israelite brothers, refusing to worship the golden image of a calf erected by King Nebuchadnezzar, were cast into a fiery furnace but emerged unharmed.

From photographs of the excavated temple and other data recently received from the expedition, Dr. Gordon deduces that this temple is the one mentioned in the Bible. Among the pictures are some which Dr. Gordon believes show drain pipes which were used to carry off the blood of animals sacrificed before the golden image.

VIGILANTES GIVE BATTLE TO BANDITS, LATTER DROP LOOT

(By United Press)
Ellsworth, Wis., Feb. 28.—Engaging in a running gun fight with bandits here early today, vigilantes hastily assembled and led by Edward and Lawrence Sisterman drove the robbers away and prevented them from getting any loot.

The bandits had entered the Crowley department store and piled up apparel and silks worth $2,500 before the burglar alarm sounded a warning to citizens that a robbery was in progress.

DONNELLY CENSURES LAND GRANT ATTACK

MOVE IS PLAIN ATTEMPT TO CIRCUMVENT COURT RULINGS, SAYS N. P. HEAD

Washington, Feb. 28.—President Charles Donnelly of the Northern Pacific railway denounced the pending attack on the road's land grants as "an attempt through some form of congressional action to circumvent the decisions of the courts."

President Coolidge has asked Chairman I. L. Lenroot of the senate public lands committee to look into the situation under which the interior department, unless action is taken, soon will be called upon to turn over to the railroad 3,900,000 acres of public lands, some of it including forest reserves.

"The grant has been in course of administration ever since construction began—that is to say, for more than 50 years—and in that period every question now suggested by the government has been thoroughly considered and adjudicated," President Donnelly said. "The railway company always has insisted that it involved a breach of faith for the government to attempt to withdraw, for forest reserve purposes, any part of the lands due to it under the grant; and eight years ago the government brought a suit to settle this special question."

"The court decided the case in favor of the railway company. The government appealed and the court decided in favor of the company, all three of the judges concurring. The government then appealed to the supreme court of the United States, and on April 11, 1921, that court decided in favor of the railway company, all nine of the justices concurring."

"The present step is a plain attempt, through some form of congressional action, to circumvent these decisions."

STATUS OF TOWNLEY AND HASTINGS TRIALS

(By United Press)
Fargo, N. D., Feb. 28.—After a month's rest, preliminary trials of A. C. Townley, former president of the National Nonpartisan league, and J. J. Hastings, former president of the United Consumers Stores company, defunct, will be resumed today before Judge Monson. Hastings is accused of embezzling $72,000 from the stores company and Townley with "aiding and abetting him."

The state is expected to produce additional witnesses to prove that the defendants were not residents of North Dakota during the time that the statute of limitations would operate in their favor.

The defense, it was indicated, would show that the $72,000 in question never belonged to the United Consumers Stores company and that J. W. Brinton, star witness for the state and former manager of the defunct stores company, had no right to deposit them in the Scandinavian-American Bank of Fargo to the credit of the stores company.

They will also attempt to show that the defendants were residents of North Dakota since 1920 and therefore the offenses, if such were committed, are outlawed by the statute of limitations.

ADVERTISING TO SET FORTH MERIT OF BRAINERD

PAMPHLETS TO BE ISSUED SHORTLY ON CITY AND LAKE REGION

ATHLETIC PARK PLANS PRESENTED, DAIRY SIRS FOR FARMERS, NEW HOTEL

The summer playground facilities and possibilities of Brainerd and the surrounding territory are to be exploited in an attractive pamphlet which the publicity and convention committee of the Chamber of Commerce was authorized to publish, at the regular meeting of the Chamber on Wednesday evening. The board of directors agreed on this action at its meeting and the Chamber concurred in it, deciding that not less than 5,000 copies be printed at a cost not to exceed $100.

Much thought and attention is to be given to this matter, in order that the pamphlets will attract many summer visitors to this vicinity. The publicity and convention committee is already at work upon the folder and hope to put out literature that will be a decided credit to the Brainerd lake region.

Athletic Park Plans
P. Anderson, chairman of the special committee on the athletic park, presented a written report with a complete drawing of the tentative plans for this park. It was moved and carried that the report be accepted and placed on file and the committee be given authority to raise the necessary funds to finance the proposition.

An estimate of the cost of preparing the park was submitted by the committee and is approximately as follows:
1250 lineal ft. for the fence...$1,250
Grandstand, 40 ft. by 100 ft..... 2,500
Baseball diamond..... 1,000
Roadway..... 500
Total.....$5,250

Dairy Sires for Farmers
A written report of the special committee on supplying the farmers with dairy sires was read. It was moved and carried that this report be accepted and the committee be given further time to complete its work.

This committee reported that two meetings with the farmers have been held and considerable progress made. There was organized a club, known as the Crow Wing County Pure Bred Stock association, which will work in conjunction with the Chamber committee. The county has been divided into six districts and committees for each district appointed who will make a survey of the dairy stock of each district and the number of sires that each breed requires.

County Agent E. G. Roth has been giving valuable assistance in every way possible, the committee reports, and his help is much appreciated. The plan of the Chamber to assist the farmers by furnishing registered dairy sires is receiving much favorable comment from all sides, the report stated, and the action will show more far reaching benefits to the county than anything ever before attempted by the Chamber.

New Hotel Proposition
Dr. R. A. Beise, chairman of the special committee to investigate the new hotel proposition, submitted a written report on the progress of this committee. This report stated that it is believed that Brainerd is on the verge of a substantial growth and that the committee's investigations show that there is no one need that would enhance and speed up such a growth as a modern, well equipped, properly managed and suitably located hotel.

The report stated that if a new, modern hotel is built and properly managed, it will prove a tremendous (Continued on Page 3)

TEA DRINKERS MEETING IN N. Y.

(By United Press)
New York, Feb. 28.—A conference that will decide what kinds of tea American tea drinkers will be permitted to have during the coming year convened at the customs house here today.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Progressive forces in the house today shifted suddenly and agreed to join administration leaders in a compromise to make the tax bill a "republican" measure, if their demands for normal income tax rates are met.

At a conference of the progressive bloc it was agreed to support the Longworth compromise of 37 1/2 per cent as the maximum surtax rates if the leaders would yield to a 5 per cent normal rate on incomes between $4,000 and $8,000 instead of 6 per cent as Longworth proposed.

Fargo, N. D., Feb. 28.—Des Moines and the N. D. A. C. debating teams contend here tonight. The question is the league of nations.

GOLD CALF TEMPLE IS BELIEVED FOUND

IDENTICAL WITH NEBUCHAD-NEZZAR'S CITADEL, DIRECTOR OF MUSEUM HOLDS

Philadelphia, Feb. 28.—The Temple of the Golden Calf, mentioned in the Old Testament, has been found by the joint expedition of the University of Pennsylvania Museum and the British Museum near Ur of the Chaldees, Dr. George B. Gordon, director of the university museum, believes. He expressed the belief today that Nebuchadnezzar's temple, which the expedition has unearthed, is identical with the golden calf temple.

The Bible story of this temple, in the book of Daniel, relates how three Israelite brothers, refusing to worship the golden image of a calf erected by King Nebuchadnezzar, were cast into a fiery furnace but emerged unharmed.

From photographs of the excavated temple and other data recently received from the expedition, Dr. Gordon deduces that this temple is the one mentioned in the Bible. Among the pictures are some which Dr. Gordon believes show drain pipes which were used to carry off the blood of animals sacrificed before the golden image.

VIGILANTES GIVE BATTLE TO BANDITS, LATTER DROP LOOT

(By United Press)
Ellsworth, Wis., Feb. 28.—Engaging in a running gun fight with bandits here early today, vigilantes hastily assembled and led by Edward and Lawrence Sisterman drove the robbers away and prevented them from getting any loot.

The bandits had entered the Crowley department store and piled up apparel and silks worth $2,500 before the burglar alarm sounded a warning to citizens that a robbery was in progress.

DONNELLY CENSURES LAND GRANT ATTACK

MOVE IS PLAIN ATTEMPT TO CIRCUMVENT COURT RULINGS, SAYS N. P. HEAD

Washington, Feb. 28.—President Charles Donnelly of the Northern Pacific railway denounced the pending attack on the road's land grants as "an attempt through some form of congressional action to circumvent the decisions of the courts."

President Coolidge has asked Chairman I. L. Lenroot of the senate public lands committee to look into the situation under which the interior department, unless action is taken, soon will be called upon to turn over to the railroad 3,900,000 acres of public lands, some of it including forest reserves.

"The grant has been in course of administration ever since construction began—that is to say, for more than 50 years—and in that period every question now suggested by the government has been thoroughly considered and adjudicated," President Donnelly said. "The railway company always has insisted that it involved a breach of faith for the government to attempt to withdraw, for forest reserve purposes, any part of the lands due to it under the grant; and eight years ago the government brought a suit to settle this special question."

"The court decided the case in favor of the railway company. The government appealed and the court decided in favor of the company, all three of the judges concurring. The government then appealed to the supreme court of the United States, and on April 11, 1921, that court decided in favor of the railway company, all nine of the justices concurring."

"The present step is a plain attempt, through some form of congressional action, to circumvent these decisions."

STATUS OF TOWNLEY AND HASTINGS TRIALS

(By United Press)
Fargo, N. D., Feb. 28.—After a month's rest, preliminary trials of A. C. Townley, former president of the National Nonpartisan league, and J. J. Hastings, former president of the United Consumers Stores company, defunct, will be resumed today before Judge Monson. Hastings is accused of embezzling $72,000 from the stores company and Townley with "aiding and abetting him."

The state is expected to produce additional witnesses to prove that the defendants were not residents of North Dakota during the time that the statute of limitations would operate in their favor.

The defense, it was indicated, would show that the $72,000 in question never belonged to the United Consumers Stores company and that J. W. Brinton, star witness for the state and former manager of the defunct stores company, had no right to deposit them in the Scandinavian-American Bank of Fargo to the credit of the stores company.

They will also attempt to show that the defendants were residents of North Dakota since 1920 and therefore the offenses, if such were committed, are outlawed by the statute of limitations.

ADVERTISING TO SET FORTH MERIT OF BRAINERD

PAMPHLETS TO BE ISSUED SHORTLY ON CITY AND LAKE REGION

ATHLETIC PARK PLANS PRESENTED, DAIRY SITES FOR FARMERS, NEW HOTEL

The summer playground facilities and possibilities of Brainerd and the surrounding territory are to be exploited in an attractive pamphlet which the publicity and convention committee of the Chamber of Commerce was authorized to publish, at the regular meeting of the Chamber on Wednesday evening. The board of directors agreed on this action at its meeting and the Chamber concurred in it, deciding that not less than 5,000 copies be printed at a cost not to exceed $100.

Much thought and attention is to be given to this matter, in order that the pamphlets will attract many summer visitors to this vicinity. The publicity and convention committee is already at work upon the folder and hope to put out literature that will be a decided credit to the Brainerd lake region.

Athletic Park Plans
P. Anderson, chairman of the special committee on the athletic park, presented a written report with a complete drawing of the tentative plans for this park. It was moved and carried that the report be accepted and placed on file and the committee be given authority to raise the necessary funds to finance the proposition.

An estimate of the cost of preparing the park was submitted by the committee and is approximately as follows:

1250 lineal ft. for the fence.....	$1,250
Grandstand, 40 ft. by 100 ft.....	2,500
Baseball diamond.....	1,000
Roadway.....	500

Total.....$5,250

Dairy Sites for Farmers
A written report of the special committee on supplying the farmers with dairy sites was read. It was moved and carried that this report be accepted and the committee be given further time to complete its work.

This committee reported that two meetings with the farmers have been held and considerable progress made. There was organized a club, known as the Crow Wing County Pure Bred Stock association, which will work in conjunction with the Chamber committee. The county has been divided into six districts and committees for each district appointed who will make a survey of the dairy stock of each district and the number of sires that each breed requires.

County Agent E. G. Roth has been giving valuable assistance in every way possible, the committee reports, and his help is much appreciated. The plan of the Chamber to assist the farmers by furnishing registered dairy sires is receiving much favorable comment from all sides, the report stated, and the action will show more far reaching benefits to the county than anything ever before attempted by the Chamber.

New Hotel Proposition
Dr. R. A. Beise, chairman of the special committee to investigate the new hotel proposition, submitted a written report on the progress of this committee. This report stated that it is believed that Brainerd is on the verge of a substantial growth and that the committee's investigations show that there is no one need that would enhance and speed up such a growth as a modern, well equipped, properly managed and suitably located hotel.

The report stated that if a new, modern hotel is built and properly managed, it will prove a tremendous

HALLOWELL CONCERT COMPANY PLEASING

The Hallowell Concert company pleased Brainerd Elks and their friends immensely last night, in fact so much, that a return engagement is contemplated. The concert, starting at 8 P. M., revealed a wealth of superb talent. It showed the company as splendid performers, and the orchestral selections and solo numbers were given tremendous applause. The Hallowells were lavish with their encores.

Among the soloists were Daa Gioscio in harp selections; Paul Dahm, in clarinet solos; Miss Fera Oman, soprano; V. Stroikoff in cello numbers. The string trio, S. Hedlund violinist, Mr. Stroikoff cellist and Mr. Gioscio harpist, was also very pleasing. John Sewinzinski, trombone, and Bert Chapman, cornetist, played a duet.

The selections by orchestra ranged from Sousa's compositions to the more classical such as Lucia d' Lammermoor, Orpheus overture, etc. These are just mentioned so that the reader may gain an idea of the repertoire of this company.

Miss Oman has a voice of rare quality, clear, liquid tones and an almost faultless enunciation. The orchestra gave her splendid support. Some numbers, as encores, were given with harp accompaniment.

Dancing followed at 10 P. M. and every number played was a revelation in dance music. The floor was filled with happy couples. The orchestra has a wide selection of all that is best in dance music and was generous with encores.

At 11 o'clock the exalted ruler gave the Elks' toast. As the lights darkened, the Star of Hope shown, the clock face showed the hour and thoughts of all reverted to the absent brothers.

CLAIMS NORTH DAKOTA IS A HEALTHY PLACE

Grand Forks, N. D., Feb. 28.—It can be demonstrated that North Dakota is the best and healthiest place in which to live, was the discouraging message which Dr. A. A. Whittemore, state health officer brought to the annual directors' convention here today.

Dr. Whittemore, who belongs to that profession which prides itself on being the only group working for the extermination of its own business, evidently sought to enlist the undertakers with the doctors in self-business wrecking.

The special appeal which the state health officer made to the convention here was to assist the registration department.

North Dakota is seeking to improve its birth and death registrations, Dr. Whittemore explained, so it can be admitted into the registration area of the United States.

In addition to meeting registration requirements vital statistics are the most important legal documents we have, Dr. Whittemore said. They prove parentage, legitimacy majority, citizenship. They are necessary for widows pensions, soldiers compensation, life insurance, marriage, to inherit property, to obtain work, to get passports, and for genealogical research.

The new full time health department of this state was created by the 1913 legislature and has but a small appropriation. Therefore it limited its efforts to improving registration and unifying and coordinating all county and volunteer health units.

The following regulations were made and will be instituted soon by the department:

Embalmers, undertakers, funeral directors, and coffin sellers must report to state health officers all burials and coffins sold by them by the fifth of the month for the preceding month.

Embalmers, undertakers, funeral directors and coffin sellers must register with the department before January 30 next year.

U. S. FILES CLAIMS FOR SMYRNA FIRE LOSSES

Constantinople, Feb. 28.—The American government has just filed claims against the Turkish government for the full value of the personal property losses of American Consul General Horton and his viceconsuls at Smyrna in the fire upon the ground the Turkish army was entirely responsible.

Admiral Bristol has submitted a voluminous memo to Angora, based on American consulate reports, showing that the Turkish forces deliberately set the city afire.

This is the first time any foreign government has attempted to establish the responsibility for the fire.

Betsy Ross.

Elizabeth Griscom (Betsy Ross) was a daughter of Samuel and Rebecca (James) Griscom. She was born January 1, 1752, at Philadelphia, Pa. Her parents were Quakers. Betsy was the seventh daughter. In consequence of her marrying an Episcopalian she was disowned by the Friends. In 1777 she made the national flag.

Cost of Warships.

The bureau of construction and repair says that the average first-line battleship of the United States navy today costs about $35,000,000 for construction and the yearly maintenance of such a vessel (including pay of officers and men and other details of a similar nature) may be estimated at from $1,500,000 to $1,800,000.

asset to the city, in the way of attracting tourists, traveling men, conventions and public gatherings of all kinds, bringing people to the city who now only pass by.

Further than this it would beautify and dignify the city's business district, increasing the value of business real estate and help share the tax burden. It would release several thousand dollars per month in rent, labor, material and supplies.

The committee's investigation of contractors and builders is entirely satisfactory, as is that of H. A. Sordini, who offers to lease the hotel. He seems to have necessary finances to handle the lease and to equip and furnish the building, together with the ability and experience to care for his guests in the proper manner. It is thought that he will be a good advertisement and a good booster for the city.

The committee feels that as a civic proposition, the matter of location of the hotel is secondary and does not endorse or withhold endorsement of certain locations at this time. On motion, the report was accepted and placed on file, and a permanent committee is to be appointed with power to do the necessary work and incorporate a holding company.

Pickle Contracts

V. L. Hitch reported in behalf of the ways and means committee as to the matter of securing the necessary pickle contracts for the Heinz company. He stated that the time in which to secure these contracts expires on May 15th, and that the required acreage would no doubt be reached by that time.

Buy at Home Campaign

W. J. Hall stated that the ways and means committee has laid out certain lines of procedure regarding the "Buy at Home" campaign, and that he would report further at the next meeting on this matter.

Tuberculosis Hospital

Richard Isle, representing the Northeast Improvement league, spoke on the matter of the veterans tuberculosis hospital. He stated that a communication from Leon Lum was received, offering to give 18 acres of land as a site for this hospital.

The chair called on Dr. J. A. Thabes who spoke in regard to this hospital. He did not favor the proposition, as he believed that it would be a detriment to the tourist business and since every town that has such a hospital becomes more or less a tubercular colony, he was not in favor of endorsing it. Dr. R. A. Beise confirmed what Dr. Thabes had said and thought that Brainerd would be better off if this hospital could be located at some other point in the county, perhaps at Deerwood. J. F. Cibuzar, R. R. Gould and W. R. Hiller spoke along the same lines.

State Timber Reserve

J. H. Krekelberg stated that a tentative report had been prepared by the committee on a state timber reserve, stating that there are good prospects for such a reserve if enough interest is taken locally and the matter pushed by the Chamber. The committee assigned to this was given more time.

Freight Cars on Crossings

A. L. Hoffman spoke regarding the freight cars that are left too near the street crossing on Sixth street, there being a law that no car shall be left within a certain distance of a crossing. On motion this matter was referred to the traffic committee with the suggestion that it be taken up with George E. Lowe, yardmaster.

Lake Levels

Walter M. Murphy stated that he had talked with Mr. Willard, who is well informed on lake and water levels in Minnesota, and that this gentleman would be willing to appear at a meeting in Brainerd to discuss the matter. On motion the Chamber decided to correspond with Mr. Willard to ascertain when he could address such a meeting in this city.

Pioneer Marl Company

Mr. Murphy further stated that the Pioneer Marl company, with a capital of $50,000, is establishing units in Backus and Crow Wing county, where high-grade marl deposits had been obtained. It was moved and carried that the Chamber extend this company an invitation to locate in Brainerd and to assist it in every way possible with its local holdings.

New Industries

Mons Mahlum spoke of getting new industries into the city and suggested that the feasibility of reopening in a modern way the brick industry be looked into. He stated that it was impossible to manufacture better brick than was made in Brainerd some 35 years ago. W. D. McKay mentioned the proposition of having stone crushed in the city in place of shipping in this commodity. Mr. Cibuzar stated that along the line of manufacturing brick, he was

Triumph Scored by "Lucretia Lombard" Will Be Shown Again Tonight and Friday

"Lucretia Lombard," the screen adaptation of Kathleen Norris' famous novel of the same name, opened to a capacity audience in the New Park Theatre yesterday, and judging from the contented faces and remarks of the people as they filed out at the close of the performance, the picture was a success.

Equipped with a remarkable story, magnificent scenery and players that seem to fit the roles just as if the parts were made for the players and not the players for the parts, the picture is a triumph of cinematic art.

The story brings out the misery of a loveless marriage. A young girl, to please her mother and satisfy her ambition for a titled daughter, married a Scotch nobleman whom she does not love. After touring Switzerland and the Alps, going through a mock honeymoon, they settle down in Sanbridge, Conn., because Sir Allen Lombard, now an invalid, needs that climate.

"Fog Bound" Scenes Laid in Florida

Florida, the winter playground of the rich, is shown in all its phases in "Fog Bound," Dorothy Dalton's latest Paramount picture which is now showing at the Lyceum under the auspices of the Royal Neighbors. So far as is known this is the first time that the Everglades, beaches, huge orange groves, beautiful estates and placid lakes of Florida have all been shown in one picture. Many pictures have shown one or two of these phases of Florida life, but in "Fog Bound" they are all flashed on the screen.

Famous Dempsey-Firpo Bout Reproduced at Lyceum Friday

Patrons of the Lyceum on Friday and Saturday will be shown an exact reproduction of the famous Dempsey-Firpo championship bout blow for blow. This happens in the 12th round of "Fighting Blood," which closes this popular series at the Lyceum on the above dates.

While the original Dempsey-Firpo pictures are barred from showing in most of the states, it will be interesting to see the famous bout reproduced with other pugilists taking the parts of Dempsey and Firpo. Another feature on the same program is Herbert Rawlinson in "A Million to Burn."

BEN FRANKLIN'S HOUSE
RAZED FOR A BRIDGE

(By United Press)

Philadelphia, Feb. 25.—Benjamin Franklin's supposed "first Philadelphia home" has been razed to make way for modern day traffic.

The little alley house, more than 200 years old, was in the path of the approach of the Delaware River bridge which will connect southern New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Sentiment was cast aside when the wrecking demolished the house at Fourth and Race streets. Under the picks of the razers, the little dwelling vanished, but the bricks were good despite their age and will be sold to be used in the building of another house. Whether the house was ever the Franklin home has long been debated, but never decided. Several efforts were made to save the structure, but were abandoned because the authenticity of the house could not be verified.

Investigators say the house was unquestionably of the period in which Poor Richard lived and express the belief that it was the home of Franklin.

Until razed, the house brought a rental of $15 a month.

DOLLARS AND SENSE

LET'S set aside, for the time being, our hearts' knowledge of the worthiness of the Salvation Army's appeal for Home Service Funds, and look at the coming campaign from a wholly materialistic viewpoint.

The Salvation Army asks $2,400.

One girl "gone wrong" costs the community thousands of dollars—and the Salvation Army have cared for many from this community.

One youth turned criminal will in his lifetime cost honest citizens five times what the Salvation Army asks for this year's work—yet the Army keeps hundreds of young men on the path of honesty.

One "down" family, given financial assistance only, will cost the city a lot of money—yet by combining moral sustenance with financial aid the Salvation Army places hundreds on the road to self-support.

Without the Salvation Army, Brainerd would necessarily meet the cost of these all-too-human transgressions with an increase in taxation far out of proportion to the cost of the present system.

Tax money must come out of our pockets.

It's not charity to give dollars to the Salvation Army Heart Fund; it's just plain common sense.

SWEET CREAM BUTTER

SEVENTY-FIVE thousand suggestions for a name under which sweet cream butter, made in Minnesota's cooperative creameries, is to be sold have been received at the state association offices in St. Paul, according to H. F. Meyer, manager of the sales department. Judges are now going over the suggestions and expect to make the award at the annual meeting of the association on March 4 at St. Paul.

The campaign to introduce sweet cream butter to the Twin City market has been unusually successful, according to Mr. Meyer. Already 1,200 stores are handling the butter on a regular basis. Last week the association began handling eggs for cooperative creameries in the vicinity of the Twin Cities and this week will distribute cheese made by the Twin City Milk Producers' association, thus completing its line of dairy products.

Sales of sweet cream butter are being made on the basis of quality, rather than price. The Farmers Cooperative Creamery association of Brainerd has decided to start grading cream March 1 and will make a difference of five cents per pound for butterfat between sweet and sour cream. All patrons desiring to get the sweet cream price must deliver their cream sweet on either Monday, Wednesday or Friday before 2 p. m.

"LOST LEGION" TO GAIN HELP

THE movement to rescue America's "Lost Legion" from the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth is gaining momentum. Relief may soon be at hand for the soldiers who fought for this country, but are still in prison, while the slackers and spies who fought against the flag have long since been released.

Joseph Norville of Memphis, an attorney who was judge advocate in France and as prosecutor sent many of the men to prison, heads one organization seeking to gain the release of the "Lost Legion."

He now says that as prosecutor he knew many of the men had received much heavier sentences or penalties than they deserved; that it is high time their cases were reviewed. Many of the soldiers are known to have been sentenced to terms equivalent to their expectations of life for offenses which in civil life would not have drawn more than a light fine.

MINNESOTA PEOPLE IN CALIFORNIA

E. C. BANE is in California for the winter and he writes Brainerd friends he was astonished to find 75 former Brainerd residents and others, wintering on the west coast, who attended the "Minnesota picnic" held at Los Angeles recently. He met the Cleary party, recent visitors, and many former old timers of Brainerd now residing in California including Tommy Grant and others.

When the 75 Brainerd people got together, it resolved itself into a regular convention and there was an exchange of reminiscences, experiences, etc., and everybody got posted on "Who's Who," and Brainerd was discussed from every angle, past present and future.

LEON E. LUM'S GIFT

DISPATCH readers are asked to note the news story of proceedings at the meeting of the Northeast Brainerd Improvement league, which appeared in yesterday's issue of the Dispatch, where publicity was accorded the generous offer of Leon E. Lum, of 18 acres of land just east of the Lum park land which he gave the city some years ago for park purposes.

Mr. Lum offers it as a site for a proposed U. S. veterans tubercular hospital.

BUSH SIGNS WITH YANKEES

BRAINERD fans will be pleased to note that Joe Bullet Bush, native son of Brainerd, veteran star pitcher, has signed his 1924 contract with the world champion New York Yankees. Bush left Tuesday evening for preliminary conditioning at Hot Springs, Arkansas. We all know Bush will continue to make good, as he is an athlete who takes care of himself and constantly keeps in shape. He uses his head as well as his trusty arm in pitching.

MARKETING CAPONS

SOMETHING new in the poultry industry occurred this week when Jacob Ringering, of Platte Lake, brought 75 capons to town and sold them to a local market. They run in weight from 8 to 12 pounds and are in excellent shape. This is a new development in the poultry business and will be watched with interest by poultry raisers, market men and the great buying public.

Bicycles Great Peril to Pedestrians in Denmark

Denmark is a flat country, and therefore an incentive to bicycling. As soon as children are out of swaddling clothes in Denmark they are lashed to the handlebars of their parents' bicycles, or strapped in rumble seats, and taken on long trips. Thus bicycling becomes second nature to the Danes.

Danish cities encourage the use of bicycles by constructing special bicycle paths along the roadside so that the bicyclists may not be annoyed by traffic. This gives the bicyclists a false sense of security, so that the motorist in Copenhagen and other Danish towns is constantly being confronted by a serene bicyclist who sails with blissful recklessness directly into the motor-car's path.

The Danes are confirmed wabblers while bicycling, due to their habit of guiding the bicycles with only one hand, the other being used to lead dogs, hold large bundles, convey open umbrellas, valises or other impediments, or to restrain the tendency of skirts to rise to the riders' waists. The inventor who evolves a contrivance for holding down the skirts of lady bicyclists should reap a fortune in Copenhagen alone.

Everybody in Copenhagen rides to work on a bicycle every morning, so that the person who ventures on the streets afoot early in the morning or late in the afternoon is constantly in peril of being knocked down and having his features enmeshed in a sprocket wheel or tangled in a welter of wire spokes.—K. L. Roberts, in Saturday Evening Post.

George Meredith Ordered All Manuscripts Burned

George Meredith placed no value whatsoever on the manuscripts of his novels. Once when he said so to Miss Nichol she answered teasingly that it was mock modesty on his part to say such a thing.

To this Meredith merely gave her an instruction: to make a bonfire of manuscripts at the end of the garden. "And he was set on it, too," she told us.

"But," she pleaded, "can't I have some of them as keepsakes?" "Yes," he answered carelessly, "take whichever you like."

She selected several of the precious documents—single sheets on which he had written out his short poems. Miss Nichol led Mr. Brooks and me down into the vegetable garden, and there, a black little heap of ashes, lay all that remained of manuscripts worth who knows how much!—"From Forty Years in My Bookshop," by Walter S. Spencer.

Unkind

They were very much in love, but at last came the day when they had a bitter quarrel and they parted, each resolved never to see the other again as long as they lived.

Years passed, and they had almost forgotten that little love affair, when one night they came face to face with each other at a dance.

The man felt rather embarrassed, but he went eagerly up to her, nevertheless, and said softly:

"Why, Muriel!"

She looked at him indifferently. "Let me see," she said, calmly. "Was it you or your brother who used to be an old admirer of mine?"

He was snubbed, but he rose to the occasion.

"I really don't remember," he replied affably. "Probably my father."—London Answers.

He'd Done It Before

"Now dear," remarked Mrs. Subbub to her husband, as he was getting ready to go to the city. "I want you to do a little job for me while you are in town today. Will you go to Goose's and get me a house robe?"

"Very well, dear," he replied, and went on his way.

Entering the store some time later, Mr. Subbub gave his order.

"Here are some very pretty ones," said the salesgirl. "What color do you prefer?"

"Doesn't make any difference," was the answer.

"Doesn't make any difference!" echoed the girl. "But don't you think your wife would like a certain color?"

"No, it doesn't make any difference what color or size I get," said Mr. Subbub, sadly. "I shall have to come back tomorrow and have it changed."

For Office Men

"Sedentary work," said the lecturer, "tends to lessen the endurance." "In other words," burred in the smart student, "the more one sits the less one can stand."

"Exactly," retorted the lecturer, "and if one lies a great deal one's standing is lost completely."

Truthful

"You've been out with worse-looking fellows than I am, haven't you?" (No answer.)

"I say, you've been out with worse-looking fellows than I, haven't you?" "I heard you the first time. I was just trying to think."

His Excuse

A newsboy took a handful of peanuts from a peanut stand and was arrested for it.

"Well, what are you here for?" the magistrate demanded.

"I don't know, your honor," the culprit replied, "unless it's impersonating an officer."

Pueblo Indians Carry Fetish When Hunting

The favorite hunt-fetish among the Pueblo Indians was the mountain lion or cougar, which they deemed the king of animals. Every Indian carried a fetish when he hunted, and derived his power from it by putting its mouth to his own and drawing in his breath—"drinking the breath" of the image—and praying to it, or rather the animal spirit it represented, to help him.

The ceremony was indispensable at the beginning of a hunt. Then before following the trail the Indian imitated the roar of his patron beast, to terrify and bewilder the game. He firmly believed that without these superstitious ceremonials he would stand no chance at all in the hunt, but with them he was sure to succeed. The animals which were successful hunters themselves were the objects of reverence, and the Indian was careful to invoke their aid, that his own pursuit might be as fortunate as theirs.

The hunter, when he struck a trail, took a forked twig and placed it in front of a footprint, with the fork opening backward. This was to trip the fleeing game.—Detroit News.

Honduras Turkeys More Gaudy Than Our Peacock

Brilliant iridescent plumage distinguishes the Honduras turkey, it being black tipped with brassy green and fringed with greenish copper. The head is bright blue and yellow, and the rump region is steel-blue, with brilliant eyes of green-blue margined with copper marking the ends of the grayish tail feathers. It is said to be much more gaudy than the peacock, and though somewhat smaller than our Eastern wild turkey its meat is claimed to be much better.

Experiments at zoological gardens indicate that this fancy bird will breed with the less colorful of our domestic species. It is the only species of turkey, however, which is native to tropical lowlands. The Mexican turkey, from which our domestic turkey is believed to have originated, lives on the high tablelands. It has the characteristic white-tipped tail feathers of the domestic bird. Wild turkeys in Arizona and New Mexico show this feature, while turkeys of the Rio Grande valley of southern Texas are partly like the Mexican birds and partly like the Eastern wild turkey.

Had No Diver's Suit

What is said to be a record claim for damage to a watch, which had been sold with a guarantee against mechanical imperfection, was reported by a New York jewelry retailer. The watch was of the wrist variety, and had been a birthday gift from the mother of the young woman who made the claim. She brought it back to the retailer a couple of months after the purchase and complained that it would not run. On the strength of the guarantee she demanded a new watch. The retailer quickly ascertained that her charge was true, but when he examined the watch more closely he found the works almost entirely covered with rust. The young woman was at first unwilling to admit that the watch had been badly treated in any way, but finally admitted that she had worn it while taking a bath. Under the circumstances the jeweler could not see where the watch was at fault, but he offered to replace the works at factory cost. This offer, however, did not make much of a hit with the claimant.

Origin of the Collar

In the patent office at Washington there is a woman's department, with the specifications of the patents arranged in chronological order. The first on the list is a patent taken out in 1800 by Mrs. Mary Kiesler for a process of weaving straw with silk. One woman inventor, Hannah Lord Montague, is honored by a public memorial in Troy, N. Y., where she was born. As Mrs. Montague was doing the family washing on a hot summer day in 1825, it occurred to her that a shirt remained clean for a longer period than a collar, so when her husband's shirts were dry she detached the collars from them. Subsequently she started to making detachable collars for sale to her neighbors, and the demand for them reached such a pitch that before 1840 several factories of "string collars" as they were called in their infancy, were established in Troy, which still possesses the largest collar factory in the world.

An Editor's View

The woman who doesn't like this paper because it is no good and never gets anything right should tuck up her underskirt. It hangs down and looks sloppy. The editor of the Economy may not know how to run a newspaper right, but he knows how to put his clothes on so his underwear won't show.—Solon (la.) Economy.

DOLLARS AND SENSE

LET'S set aside, for the time being, our hearts' knowledge of the worthiness of the Salvation Army's appeal for Home Service Funds, and look at the coming campaign from a wholly materialistic viewpoint.

The Salvation Army asks $2,400.

One girl "gone wrong" costs the community thousands of dollars—and the Salvation Army have cared for many from this community.

One youth turned criminal will in his lifetime cost honest citizens five times what the Salvation Army asks for this year's work—yet the Army keeps hundreds of young men on the path of honesty.

One "down" family, given financial assistance only, will cost the city a lot of money—yet by combining moral sustenance with financial aid the Salvation Army places hundreds on the road to self-support.

Without the Salvation Army, Brainerd would necessarily meet the cost of these all-too-human transgressions with an increase in taxation far out of proportion to the cost of the present system.

Tax money must come out of our pockets.

It's not charity to give dollars to the Salvation Army Heart Fund; it's just plain common sense.

SWEET CREAM BUTTER

SEVENTY-FIVE thousand suggestions for a name under which sweet cream butter, made in Minnesota's cooperative creameries, is to be sold have been received at the state association offices in St. Paul, according to H. F. Meyer, manager of the sales department. Judges are now going over the suggestions and expect to make the award at the annual meeting of the association on March 4 at St. Paul.

The campaign to introduce sweet cream butter to the Twin City market has been unusually successful, according to Mr. Meyer. Already 1,200 stores are handling the butter on a regular basis. Last week the association began handling eggs for cooperative creameries in the vicinity of the Twin Cities and this week will distribute cheese made by the Twin City Milk Producers' association, thus completing its line of dairy products.

Sales of sweet cream butter are being made on the basis of quality, rather than price. The Farmers Cooperative Creamery association of Brainerd has decided to start grading cream March 1 and will make a difference of five cents per pound for butterfat between sweet and sour cream. All patrons desiring to get the sweet cream price must deliver their cream sweet on either Monday, Wednesday or Friday before 2 p. m.

"LOST LEGION" TO GAIN HELP

THE movement to rescue America's "Lost Legion" from the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth is gaining momentum. Relief may soon be at hand for the soldiers who fought for this country, but are still in prison, while the slackers and spies who fought against the flag have long since been released.

Joseph Norville of Memphis, an attorney who was judge advocate in France and as prosecutor sent many of the men to prison, heads one organization seeking to gain the release of the "Lost Legion."

He now says that as prosecutor he knew many of the men had received much heavier sentences or penalties than they deserved; that it is high time their cases were reviewed. Many of the soldiers are known to have been sentenced to terms equivalent to their expectations of life for offenses which in civil life would not have drawn more than a light fine.

MINNESOTA PEOPLE IN CALIFORNIA

E. C. BANE is in California for the winter and he writes Brainerd friends he was astonished to find 75, former Brainerd residents and others, wintering on the west coast, who attended the "Minnesota picnic" held at Los Angeles recently. He met the Cleary party, recent visitors, and many former old timers of Brainerd now residing in California including Tommy Grant and others.

When the 75 Brainerd people got together, it resolved itself into a regular convention and there was an exchange of reminiscences, experiences, etc., and everybody got posted on "Who's Who," and Brainerd was discussed from every angle, past present and future.

LEON E. LUM'S GIFT

DISPATCH readers are asked to note the news story of proceedings at the meeting of the Northeast Brainerd Improvement league, which appeared in yesterday's issue of the Dispatch, where publicity was accorded the generous offer of Leon E. Lum, of 18 acres of land just east of the Lum park land which he gave the city some years ago for park purposes.

Mr. Lum offers it as a site for a proposed U. S. veterans tubercular hospital.

BUSH SIGNS WITH YANKEES

BRAINERD fans will be pleased to note that Joe Bullet Bush, native son of Brainerd, veteran star pitcher, has signed his 1924 contract with the world champion New York Yankees. Bush left Tuesday evening for preliminary conditioning at Hot Springs, Arkansas. We all know Bush will continue to make good, as he is an athlete who takes care of himself and constantly keeps in shape. He uses his head as well as his trusty arm in pitching.

MARKETING CAPONS

SOMETHING new in the poultry industry occurred this week when Jacob Ringering, of Platte Lake, brought 75 capons to town and sold them to a local market. They run in weight from 8 to 12 pounds and are in excellent shape. This is a new development in the poultry business and will be watched with interest by poultry raisers, market men and the great buying public.

DAUGHERTY ON TRIAL BEFORE CONGRESS

he helped E. B. McLean, Washington publisher, try to stifle the senate investigation of McLean's dealings with Albert B. Fall.

The committee today decided to subpoena Palmer, whose name appeared on telegrams exchanged between McLean and his employees, which were submitted to the committee. Palmer in some of these telegrams was reported to McLean as prepared to "work on" Walsh, to prevent McLean being questioned.

DAUGHERTY SAYS HE IS NO QUITTER

Chicago, Feb. 28.—"I'm no quitter," Attorney General Daugherty told the United Press when he arrived here today for a conference with federal officials conducting the grand jury investigation of the United States veterans' bureau.

Daugherty was greatly heartened by telegrams of confidence from all parts of the country.

"A winner never quits, a quitter never wins" one telegram stated, and Daugherty showed it with pride.

"That is my position," he said. "I'm no quitter."

Daugherty arrived in Chicago at 9 a. m. and went at once to the federal building for conferences with his aides. He put up at the Union League club where he probably will remain until he leaves Chicago for Miami, Florida, to visit his invalid wife.

A small army of photographers and newspapermen greeted the attorney general on his arrival here. He laughingly posed for a picture with John W. Crim, special prosecutor for the government in the veterans' bureau case.

Daugherty showed impatience at the whirl of questions hurled at him by the newspapermen. "I will issue a statement later," he said. "I am here on government business, and therefore, I can't discuss it."

When asked whether he had an appointment with Silas H. Strawn, Chicago attorney, who was selected and then rejected as government attorney in the Teapot Dome scandal, he replied sharply.

"Gentlemen, there is no use cross-questioning me. I shall have what I have to say later."

UNDERWOOD IN OIL SCANDAL INQUIRY

Washington, Feb. 28.—Another presidential candidate, Senator Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, was definitely involved today in the senate's inquiry into the oil scandal.

Underwood's name was first brought in when the senate committee found a telegram to E. B. McLean, Washington publisher, from one of his employees here stating that A. Mitchell Palmer, former attorney general, was going to "work" Underwood to "work on" Senator Walsh, leading investigator of the committee, to get him to refrain from questioning McLean about a $100,000 loan to Fall.

Walsh at first denied that Underwood had ever mentioned McLean to him, but this morning revealed a conversation he said he had forgotten, but which Underwood had reminded him of. Underwood in that conversation asked Walsh whether McLean would be called. Walsh said the committee had authorized him to go to Palm Beach to question McLean.

Underwood was named again in a telegram to McLean from an employee of the Washington Post, McLean's paper, stating that Senators Curtis and Lenroot had advised that Underwood be seen in an effort to have Walsh called off. In this telegram it was added, however, that the effort through Underwood was not considered of any use.

Production of this evidence, thus definitely putting Underwood among those who are to be approached in an effort to halt the oil investigation at the very time it was on the eve of the disclosures which later opened up the whole scandal, came just after the committee had decided to question Palmer about his part in which some committee members feel was a definite attempt to stifle the whole inquiry.

LENROOT THREATENS RESIGNING CHAIRMANSHIP

Washington, Feb. 28.—Senator Lenroot, Wisconsin, today threatened in the senate to resign as chairman of the senate public lands committee which is investigating the naval oil scandal.

"I would be very glad to be relieved of the duties of chairman of this committee, and I will say that if this goes on indefinitely, I shall have to ask to be relieved," said Lenroot.

He was discussing at the time criticism of himself and Senator Smoot, Utah, for not making public the story of their conference with Albert B. Fall at an hotel here at Christmas with regard to Fall's purchase of a $91,000 ranch which had been given the committee.

PALMER TO APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE

Washington, Feb. 28.—Former Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer will appear before the committee tomorrow morning. It was decided after a conference between Senators Dill, Walsh, Lenroot and Palmer. Palmer will be asked by Dill, who got the committee to request his appearance, to explain his connection in the affairs of McLean and Fall as revealed in telegrams which the committee has.

APPLY SULPHUR ON YOUR ECZEMA SKIN

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advt.

APPLY SULPHUR ON YOUR ECZEMA SKIN

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advt.

This different wallboard makes solid, smooth-surfaced and tight-jointed walls and ceilings. It is highest grade gypsum, cast in sheets and all ready for use. You or your carpenter put it up—and it stays true and rigid and fireproof as long as the building stands.

It's Not Altogether a Matter of Price

Deciding to buy a certain article just because the price is little, is not necessarily saving money.

If the article is of good materials and reliable workmanship and the price is little for such quality, then you have made a real saving.

The standard of our goods is uniformly reliable and it is because of this fact that our low prices afford you savings that are extremely difficult to match.

Special Gospel Meetings

(Contributed)

"Repent, and believe the Gospel" were the words Jesus Christ spoke as He took up His ministry, gave us the gospel and sealed it with His own blood.

There is another Gospel being preached today—many others, we dare say—but there is only one true Gospel. The true Gospel is the Gospel according to the word of God. It is the simple Gospel of the word—the new birth, the baptism in the Holy Spirit, healing and the second coming of our Lord.

This is the Gospel Jesus speaks of when He said, "Repent and believe the Gospel."

These truths are being proclaimed at the True Gospel Assembly on Kindred street from week to week.

Tomorrow (Friday) night there will be a special Gospel meeting at 8 o'clock to which you are invited.

Sunday afternoon the regular preaching service is held at 3 o'clock.

Come and hear the true way to God. R. V. Fyles, pastor.

The high school class play festivities came to a close Monday night when Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Nicholson entertained the cast at their home after the performance. The tables shone in white linen and yellow candelsticks and jonquils. Place cards fitting the characters were at every place.

Willie Baxter's, for instance, was a slender youth in a dress suit. The lunch, which was delicious, carried out the note of yellow and green. There was creamed chicken on lettuce, green peas, golden rolls, olives, cocoa with whipped cream, yellow ice cream and last, a gorgeous cake in white and yellow—a toothsome angel food with "Seventeen" decorating its shining surface.

The cast certainly appreciated both the thoughtfulness of the Nicholsons and the lunch that thoughtfulness provided.

EDNA S. VER-HAAR TO SING SUNDAY

Artist of Wonderful Personality and Charm to Give Song
Recital

AT NEW PARK THEATRE MCH 2

Soloist Appears Under Auspices of the Brainerd Musical Club

Edna Swanson Ver-Haar appears as the third number of the Brainerd Musical club concert course in recital at the New Park theatre Sunday afternoon, March 2, at 4 o'clock.

Edna Swanson Ver-Haar

There are those who have listened to musical programs who can recall some singer or player whose music went straight to the heart, arousing emotions long dormant, bringing a flood of memories that had been waiting to come forth and sweeten life. Not every singer finds the door of the heart open when the song is given. Not all appeals to mind and emotion and heart are true and compelling. But there are singers whose voices make an irresistible appeal, who mellow the heart and loosen memories that stream through the mind to warm and thrill the soul.

Such an artist is Edna Swanson Ver-Haar, whose personality and charm grow upon you as her program progresses. When she sings eye, ear and taste alike are satisfied. Her power to satisfy is an unanalyzable blend of personal beauty, superb voice, geniality and perfect stage poise.

Perhaps this artist's greatest triumph was her tour of Sweden as soloist with the Swedish Choral Society of Chicago, directed by Edgar Nelson. The press of that country was lavish in praise of her wonderful voice. "The most beautiful woman in Sweden!" was the compliment paid her by King Gustav, when she sang for him in the Royal Palace at Stockholm.

It remained for Sweden to bow her head in recognition when America sent over one of its most popular contraltos as soloist of a popular musical organization. Aside from being the possessor of a ravishingly beautiful organ, this subject also had charms of personality which because of their rarity, captivated all with whom she came in contact while passing through the realms, including his majesty, the king, at Stockholm, princes and people of rank and the common people everywhere; all were entranced.

TO PROTECT REFEREES AGAINST INSULT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 28.—To curb that greatest prerogative of the fight fan, the privilege of opening his mouth back to the ears and emitting the loud sound of what Babe Ruth calls "the berries," William Muldoon threatens to have a platoon of deputies from the boxing commission at the ring-side to give the air to any and all who resort to the razz to relieve their feelings.

Muldoon has evolved the theory that a blue-coat and some brass buttons will be the restraint that will act as the silencer of the squawkers who boo and howl even before the decision has been given.

New Yorkers are the greatest skeptics in the world, and when the Duke said he would silence the great razz by the employment of special cops, it was suggested: "Who will stop the cops from squawkin'?"

ON TO BEMIDJI FRIDAY AFTERNOON

BIG DELEGATION TO ACCOMPANY BRAINERD HIGH CAGE SHOOTERS

(By L. P.)

What will probably prove to be one of the greatest crowds of basketball fans that ever assembled at a train for Bemidji will be present at the depot ready to leave with the team for Bemidji Friday afternoon.

It will be a noisy gathering and one that will be heard for miles in every direction. Each school will have several cheer leaders and the latter will have big rooting organizations to direct. There is certain to be plenty of the Rah! Rah! Rah!!! with liberal doses of the Siz! Boom! Bah! from both sides of the playing floor. This is assured no matter which team wins the contest.

Brainerd is keyed high for Friday evening's contest. The Blue and White is eager to cop the game and thus keep up their string of victories.

Friday night's contest at Bemidji is the biggest and most important game of the season to Brainerd. Much depends on the outcome of the battle whether or not Brainerd will be represented at the District meet held at Bemidji March 7 and 8.

The Brainerd squad has been given the privilege of practicing on the Crosby-Ironton high school floor this week, to get in trim for the large floor at Bemidji. Bemidji defeated Brainerd by a low score of 12 to 6 which we all regret, and the standard of basketball they are displaying now should turn back any team.

The students of the high school and players and Coach Rose extend their many thanks to Earl O'Brien and Desmond Hurley and the American Legion for their assistance in making it possible for them to practice on the large Crosby floor.

DOCTORS, PASTORS TO MEET AT BASKETBALL

Beach, N. D., Feb. 28.—Following a friendly argument touching the early athletic prowess of both, Father W. F. Hake, pastor of the Catholic church here, and Dr. H. L. Rice, a dentist, are organizing teams of clerics and dentists-doctors to meet in a game of basketball. Besides Father Hake, the pulpiter will comprise the pastors of the Methodist, Congregational, Presbyterian and Lutheran churches and Father Hake's assistant. Each team on it has some former husky players of athletic games.

Ministers' Volleyball Team Seeks Opposition

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Ministers of Moline, Ill., want to find a team to beat in a volley ball game. Rev. Paul Arnold Peterson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Moline, issues the challenge in behalf of the Ministerial association team of this city.

"We believe we can hold our own against any ministerial association volleyball team in Illinois," Rev. Peterson writes. "We have defeated most of the good teams in this section and now we want to claim the state championship. The Chicago Ministerial association is eligible to accept the challenge."

Pinkey Mitchell Suspended

Milwaukee, Feb. 28.—Pinkey Mitchell, elongated junior welter weight champion, has been suspended until April 1 by the Wisconsin Athletic commission because of his tardiness in weighing in for his recent scrap with Lew Tendler here.

BULL OF THE PAMPAS GETS REAL WILD BULL; TO KEEP IT AS MASCOT

Buenos Aires, Feb. 28.—Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight champion, dubbed "The Wild Bull of the Pampas," because of his great strength and ferocious aspect in the ring, has been presented by an admirer with a real wild bull, a young animal captured while roaming the plains. Firpo says he will keep the bull as a mascot.

STECHER TO WRESTLE LEWIS IN KANSAS CITY

Minneapolis, Feb. 28.—Joe Stecher will be given another chance to win the world's heavyweight wrestling championship when he meets Strangler Lewis in a finish match at Kansas City early in April, according to an announcement made by Gabe Kaufmann, Kansas City promoter. Kaufmann has offered a purse of $20,000 for the match which will be divided on a basis of 60 per cent to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser.

Stecher, accompanied by his brother and manager, Anton, will arrive in Minneapolis today for his bout with Yussif Hussane, the Bulgarian heavyweight, at the Gayety Theatre.

BABE RUTH LOSES OUT IN GOLF PLAY

Hot Springs, Ark., Feb. 28.—The second day of match play in the annual spring tournament at the Hot Springs Golf and Country club found five major league ball players still in the contest for the honors.

The survivors of the elimination contest in which Babe Ruth, home-run king, and Jack Renalt, the Canadian heavyweight boxer, met defeat, included Everett Scott, Fred Hoffman, Herman Ruel, Dell Pratt and Paul Zahniser.

Siki Much Improved; Fever Symptoms Leave

Havana, Feb. 28.—Battling Siki, who escaped from his boarding house yesterday while partly delirious from fever appeared to be much improved last night and his nurse said the fever and pneumatic symptoms had left him. He talked rationally and said he hoped soon to fill his boxing engagements here. Siki suffered a slight sprain on his left ankle when he fell yesterday.

Weekend Games Wind Up Schedule for St. Cloud

St. Cloud, Feb. 28.—St. Cloud Teachers' college, assured of second place in the minor state college conference, will tangle Friday and Saturday nights with Mankato Teachers' college and Parker college at Mankato and Winnebago. The pair of tilts are the last two on the teachers' schedule.

A. A. U. Accepts British Bid for Swim Contests

New York, Feb. 28.—An invitation for American swimmers to visit England for competitions against the foremost swimmers of the British empire on July 26 has been accepted with reservations, A. A. U. officials announced. The Americans object to a clause limiting each swimmer to one event.

Arctic Flowers in Montana. At the foot of a glacier in the Montana Rockies, Arctic flowers and specimens of the evergreens which correspond to the last trees of the North are found in abundance, having followed the retreating ice sheets thousands of years ago.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT OPENS AT LUVERNE

Luverne, Minn., Feb. 28.—Luverne's third annual bowling tournament has opened and will continue today and Friday. Teams from Rock Rapids, Sioux Falls, Garretson, Jasper, Pipestone, Worthington and Luverne have entered the various events. Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

Reputes Cood's View of Red-Haired Men

The girl students of the University of Minnesota answered a questionnaire to the kind of husband they wanted—good looks, money, health, civility and other qualifications came in for the usual number of votes. One girl, however, wrote this:

"He need not be good-looking, but he must have red hair, because all red-haired men are very ambitious."

This girl is wrong, says the Seattle Post. And because we like all the girls in the University of Minnesota—and all the girls outside of said university—we address this erring thinker in these imposing words:

Do not, girlie, insist upon the red-haired. Give the black-haired and the brown-haired and the sandy-haired and the gray-haired, and even those who have no hair at all, a chance. They are all ambitious. True, most of them never get anywhere, but that is because their brains are inferior and not because their hair is not red.

Napoleon was not red-haired. Neither was Shakespeare, Michelangelo nor Casanova, the great lover. Henry Ford is not red-haired and yet he is chock-full of ambition. The same with LaFollette, Borah, McAdoo, Underwood and Al Smith. They are all simply bubbling over with ambition and yet they have no red hair. And there is William Jennings Bryan. You could have no possible doubt of his ambition, and yet the two or three hairs he has left upon the top of his head are not red. Even Doctor Cook is not red-haired and yet his ambition led him to jail.

Do not impose this limitation upon the boys, dear lady. Marry the one who first finds his way to your heart. If his hair is yellow or green or absent, forgive him. He may still make an ideal husband.

Ancestor of Kings

The long line of British sovereigns, and the present king himself, have owed their place in life, and their right of succession, to an illicit love for a peasant girl who pounded clothes upon a stone beside a Norman stream. The father of William of Normandy looked down from his castle window one day on a line of washers by the stream side. His fancy was fascinated by the peculiar grace and beauty of one of them, a young girl of humble parentage, and she became the mother of William the Conqueror.

To this day the washtubs for the clothes of Normandy are just as they were before the Conquest—the running streams, or little slab-lined pools at their edges. The women kneed on rows of stones laid just in the current of the stream, or around the pools. The washing is done by beating the clothes vigorously upon rocks.—Kansas City Star.

Red Cap of Liberty

The liberty cap is a famous symbol for freedom. It appears on the head of liberty on several American coins and on the seals of several Central and South American republics. In ancient Rome a freed slave was given the conical Phrygian headdress, from which the modern liberty cap is copied. Brutus and Cassius used the symbol on coins struck after the assassination of Julius Caesar.

At the outbreak of the French revolution the bonnet rouge, or red cap, was adopted as the badge of the tricolor, and Louis XVI was forced to wear it June 20, 1792, when he was paraded through the streets by the mob which had burst into his palace.

It is not certain that the red cap of the French revolutionists was a revival of the Roman tradition, but its significance is the same.—Detroit News.

A Bit Early.

He—"Suppose it would be quite improper for me to kiss you on such a short acquaintance." She—"Yes, but it's quite early in the evening yet."

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Advt.

WELCOME SMALL ADVERTISERS
BECAUSE THEY SOON GROW
BIG AND ONE.

Are We Extravagant?

Here are some costs on Studebaker cars—

Would you have us cut them down?

WE are lavish on Studebaker cars. For some features we pay three and four times what they need cost.

Here are some of those costs which affect you. Tell us—would you want any one reduced?

Our prices on high-grade Sixes run from $1025 to $2685. They stand at bottom in the fine-car field, despite these extra costs. All because the demand requires 150,000 cars per year. But they could be lower if we cut these costs. Would you have us do it?

Engineering—$500,000

Our engineering departments cost us $500,000 yearly.

Our Department of Research and Experiment employs 125 skilled men. It spends vast sums in analyses and tests.

Our Bureau of Methods and Standards fixes every formula, every requirement. It makes 500,000 tests per year to maintain our high standards.

We make 30,000 inspections on every Studebaker car during manufacture before it goes out of the factory. We employ 1,200 men to do that.

Those are heavy costs. But remember how they are divided—by 150,000 cars per year. They form but a trifle per car.

$50,000,000 in plants

We have invested $50,000,000 in modern plants and equipment. $8,000,000 in drop forge plants. $10,000,000 in body plants—as the only way to do Studebaker coach work.

These plants are equipped with 12,500 up-to-date machines, many of them very expensive.

But consider the alternative. Profits to other makers. We save up to $300 for you by building Studebaker bodies in our own body-plants.

15% extra on steel

On some steels we pay a bonus of 15% to the maker. Just to get our formulas exact. We could save that extra on "commercial runs."

We are one of the very few builders, either in Europe or America, using crankshafts machined on all surfaces. It costs us $600,000 a year to give you this. But it results in that smoothness of operation, that lack of vibration which characterizes only the most expensive cars.

Every Studebaker car is Timken-equipped. The Special-Six and the Big-Six have more Timken bearings than any car selling under $5,600 in America. The Light-Six more than any competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

Don't Buy a Fine Car until you see the leaders

Studebakers hold the top place in the fine-car field today.

Last year, 145,167 people chose them against all rivals. They paid $201,000,000 for them.

For 72 years the Studebaker name has stood for the utmost in quality. It will never stand for less.

Today there are assets of $90,000,000 staked on the Studebaker cars.

Don't pay $1,000 or more for a car without knowing what Studebaker offers. You will find here some scores of advantages. Learn what they mean to you.

Other costly extras

Our bodies are finished with 18 operations, including 15 coats of paint and varnish.

We use real leather upholstery. We could cut the price of our open models $25.00 were we willing to use imitation instead of genuine leather.

We upholster our closed models in the finest Chase Mohair. Cotton or ordinary wool, or a combination of both, would enable us to reduce our price from $100 to $150 per car. But we would thus sacrifice Studebaker quality and reputation.

That is why, in the fine-car field, the Studebaker leads. The demand has almost trebled in the past three years. These cars have become the sensation of Motordom. On some of these models we have never yet been able to meet the demand.

We spend money lavishly. We build without regard to cost. But, in our quantity production, we still bring costs to bottom.

Are We Extravagant?

Here are some costs on Studebaker cars—

Would you have us cut them down?

WE are lavish on Studebaker cars. For some features we pay three and four times what they need cost.

Here are some of those costs which affect you. Tell us—would you want any one reduced?

Our prices on high-grade Sixes run from $1025 to $2685. They stand at bottom in the fine-car field, despite these extra costs. All because the demand requires 150,000 cars per year. But they could be lower if we cut these costs. Would you have us do it?

Engineering—$500,000

Our engineering departments cost us $500,000 yearly.

Our Department of Research and Experiment employs 125 skilled men. It spends vast sums in analyses and tests.

Our Bureau of Methods and Standards fixes every formula, every requirement. It makes 500,000 tests per year to maintain our high standards.

We make 30,000 inspections on every Studebaker car during manufacture before it goes out of the factory. We employ 1,200 men to do that.

Those are heavy costs. But remember how they are divided—by 150,000 cars per year. They form but a trifle per car.

$50,000,000 in plants

We have invested $50,000,000 in modern plants and equipment. $8,000,000 in drop forge plants. $10,000,000 in body plants—as the only way to do Studebaker coach work.

These plants are equipped with 12,500 up-to-date machines, many of them very expensive.

But consider the alternative. Profits to other makers. We save up to $300 for you by building Studebaker bodies in our own body-plants.

15% extra on steel

On some steels we pay a bonus of 15% to the maker. Just to get our formulas exact. We could save that extra on "commercial runs."

We are one of the very few builders, either in Europe or America, using crankshafts machined on all surfaces. It costs us $600,000 a year to give you this. But it results in that smoothness of operation, that lack of vibration which characterizes only the most expensive cars.

Every Studebaker car is Timken-equipped. The Special-Six and the Big-Six have more Timken bearings than any car selling under $5,600 in America. The Light-Six more than any competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

Don't Buy a Fine Car until you see the leaders

Studebakers hold the top place in the fine-car field today.

Last year, 145,167 people chose them against all rivals. They paid $201,000,000 for them.

For 72 years the Studebaker name has stood for the utmost in quality. It will never stand for less.

Today there are assets of $90,000,000 staked on the Studebaker cars.

Don't pay $1,000 or more for a car without knowing what Studebaker offers. You will find here some scores of advantages. Learn what they mean to you.

Other costly extras

Our bodies are finished with 18 operations, including 15 coats of paint and varnish.

We use real leather upholstery. We could cut the price of our open models $25.00 were we willing to use imitation instead of genuine leather.

We upholster our closed models in the finest Chase Mohair. Cotton or ordinary wool, or a combination of both, would enable us to reduce our price from $100 to $150 per car. But we would thus sacrifice Studebaker quality and reputation.
